ARTICLE I
REGISTERED OFFICE AND PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS

This corporation shall have and maintain at all times within the State of Delaware a registered office at such place as may be specified in the Certificate of Incorporation or subsequently designated by the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this corporation's principal place of business may be different from its registered office, and may be located from time to time at any place as may be designated by the Board of Directors of this corporation, including a place outside of the State of Delaware. This corporation shall keep at its principal place of business current copies of the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of this corporation, and in accordance with these Bylaws, the Secretary shall furnish copies of the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws to the members or directors requesting to inspect them.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Term and Succession of Members.

(a) This corporation has one class of members and three members who are: Jed McCaleb, Patrick Collison, and Joyce Kim (the "Initial Members"). Each initial member will serve for life or until such time as either he or she becomes incapacitated or appoints a successor member and resigns, as provided in Section 1(b), below. The term "incapacitated" will refer to an individual with respect to whom any member of the Board of Directors comes into possession of (i) a court order holding the individual to be legally incapacitated to act on his or her own behalf, (ii) certificates of two licensed physicians certifying that the individual is unable, for any reason, to act rationally and prudently in the conduct of his or her affairs or (iii) evidence that the recipient deems both credible and currently applicable that the individual has disappeared or is unaccountably absent.

(b) Any member may resign at any time by mailing or delivering written notice to the Secretary of this corporation (any resignation to take effect as specified therein or, if not specified, upon receipt by the Secretary). In connection with the resignation, the resigning member may appoint a successor member, provided that appointment will only be effective upon the written approval of at least one other member.

(c) In the event that an Initial Member ceases to be a member for any reason (including death, incapacity, resignation or removal), and has not appointed a successor member, the other member(s) may appoint one or more members to replace him or her.

(d) In the event that all of the Initial Members cease being members for any reason (including death, incapacity, resignation or removal), and have not appointed successor members, the persons who are currently serving as directors of this corporation will become the members of this corporation, with the number of members of this corporation being increased or decreased accordingly.

Section 2. Meetings of Members. A meeting of the membership will be held annually for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the membership. Unless otherwise fixed by the Board of Directors, the annual meeting of the membership will take place immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Board of Directors. At any time in the interval between annual meetings, a special meeting of the members may be called by the President, by a majority of the Board of Directors or by a majority of the members by vote at a meeting or in writing (addressed to the Secretary of this corporation).

Section 3. Notice. In accordance with Section 222 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, written notice which states the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which members may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, will be made by first class mail, facsimile transmission, telegraph, telex, courier service, electronic mail or hand delivery and will be given not less than [ten] nor more than [sixty] days before the date of the meeting. Notice of special meetings will indicate the purpose for which they are called. Notice of meetings need not be given to any member who submits a signed waiver of notice whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him or her.

Section 4. Quorum; Adjournment of Meetings. At all meetings of the members, at least three-fourths of the members must be present to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At any adjourned meeting for which a quorum was present at the original meeting, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty days, notice of the adjourned meeting will be given.

Section 5. Voting. At any meeting of the members, each member present in person will be entitled to one vote.

Section 6. Proxies. In accordance with Section 215 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, voting by proxy will be permitted.

Section 7. Action by Members

(a) As authorized under Section 215(c) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, and except as otherwise provided by law or by these Bylaws, any corporate action authorized by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the members will be an act of the members.

(b) Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the members, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be dated and signed by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members having a right to vote thereon were present and voted, and shall be delivered to this corporation by delivery to its registered office in this State, its principal place of business, or its Secretary. Any such writing may be signed in counterparts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, members may demonstrate their consent to actions through an electronic transmission, provided that the electronic transmission is delivered with information from which this corporation can determine: (A) that the electronic transmission was transmitted by the member (or by a person or persons authorized to act for the member); and (B) the date on which such member or authorized person or persons transmitted such electronic transmission. Such electronic transmissions may be delivered to the principal place of business of this corporation or to this corporation's Secretary if either such delivery has been approved by resolution of the Board of Directors and is made in the manner provided in the resolution.

Section 8. Nonliability. The members shall not be liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of this corporation.

Section 9. Nontransferability. No member may transfer for value or otherwise his or her membership or any right arising therefrom. Appointing successor members shall not be deemed to be a transfer.

Section 2. Inspection Rights. The right of the members to have access to the membership list of this corporation or its other books and records shall be governed by Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 3. Other Rights. In addition to the rights described in these Bylaws, the members of this corporation shall have any other rights afforded voting members under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Vacancies may be filled by a vote of three-fourths of the members of this corporation for the unexpired portion of the term. No reduction in the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his or her term of office.

Section 5. Resignation and Removal. Any director may resign at any time upon notice given in writing addressed to any director or officer of this corporation other than himself or herself or by electronic transmission addressed to any member of the Board or officer of this corporation other than himself or herself. A resignation is effective when the resignation is delivered unless the resignation specifies a later effective date or an effective date determined upon the happening of an event or events. Unless otherwise specified in that notice, the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any director may be removed at any time by a unanimous vote of the members with or without cause or by a vote of three-fourths of the directors then in office, with or without cause, if and to the extent permitted in the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 6. Annual Board Meetings. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at least once a year. Annual meetings shall be called by the President, or any two directors, and noticed in accordance with Section 8 of this Article.

Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or committee of the Board of Directors need be specified in any written waiver of notice or any waiver by electronic transmission. - (c) any organization for which a director or officer of this corporation also serves as a director or officer, shall be void or voidable solely for that reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board or committee of the Board which authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because any such director's or officer's vote was counted for such purpose, if:

- (d) The material facts as to the director's or officer's relationship or interest, and as to the contract or transaction, are disclosed or are known to the Board or the committee, and the Board or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; or

(c) This corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against that person, whether or not this corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against that liability under the provisions of this Article VIII or otherwise.

(d) The provisions of this Article VIII will be applicable to all Actions made or commenced after the adoption of this Article VIII, whether arising from acts or omissions occurring before or after its adoption. The provisions of this Article VIII will be deemed to be a contract between this corporation and each director or officer who serves in that capacity at any time while this Article and the relevant provisions of the laws of the State of Delaware and other applicable law, if any, are in effect, and any repeal or modification of this Article VIII will not adversely affect any right or protection of any Indemnified Person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of the repeal or modification.

(e) If any provision of this Article VIII will be found to be invalid or limited in application by reason of any law or regulation, that finding will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Article VIII.
